B. EXPECTED WORK RESULTS

The expected work results are provided in the Contract (see the appendix).

By submitting a proposal under this tender invitation, the tender participant acknowledges that individuals engaged in the performance of the contract will be at an increased risk of death and injury due to ongoing military actions against Ukraine. The tender participant also acknowledges that in the event of their selection, they will execute the contract at their own risk. Additionally, the tender participant confirms that in the event of their selection, they will conduct systematic safety assessments before undertaking any activities related to contract performance. The Public Organization "League of Social Workers of Ukraine" disclaims any responsibility for the death, injury, or harm to the Supplier or individuals engaged in the performance of the contract that they may suffer in Ukraine.

C. PAYMENT

All tender participants are invited to fill in the payment table provided in the Contract. Please note that the final contract value and/or the quantity of "boxes of warmth," in case of budget overrun, may be unilaterally reduced at any stage of procurement and contract execution. In case of non-receipt of funding from UNICEF or a reduction in its size, the Public Organization "League of Social Workers of Ukraine" reserves the right to unilaterally reduce the procurement volume or terminate the contract. The Public Organization "League of Social Workers of Ukraine" bears no responsibility for the reduction or termination of the contract in case of a decrease or non-receipt of funds for procurement.
